COMPANIES STRUGGLING TO ACCESS GOVERNMENT SUPPORT

The Treasury has asked for case studies of companies that are struggling to access the Government's financial support packages. If you are struggling to access these packages and you are willing to provide a bit of context (including which bank) please email the information to David Moore (David.Moore@SteelConstruction.org) by 12.00pm tomorrow.

These examples will be hugely valuable to Treasury as they will be used to make further amendments to the support packages.

Unfortunately, the deadline for this information is very short as the Treasury needs it by 12.00pm on Friday 24th April 2020 (noon tomorrow).
